

WAYNE H. BARLOW

JAZZ MUSIC SCHOLARSHIP FUND

APPLICATION

2022

Jazz is a music genre that was born in New Orleans during the 19th and 20th centuries. Today, Jazz has worldwide appeal, although deeply rooted in the black experience in the United States, other cultures have made contributions to this unique art form. The Jacksonville Jazz Society (JJS) is a not-for-profit organization of jazz enthusiasts dedicated to the preservation, promotion, and presentation of Jazz. JJS Founder, Na'im Rashid, is extremely passionate about Jazz and educating future generations about this magnificent art form. To achieve its mission, the Wayne H. Barlow (Co-Founder) Jazz Music Scholarship was created to further jazz education by providing financial assistance to deserving students whose curriculum is focused on jazz studies.

Candidate's Eligibility requirements/Criteria include:

- Proof of Florida residency and full-time enrollment in an accredited institution/college or university or high school (within Jacksonville or surrounding counties).
- Must be entering or continuing a course of study pursuing a degree with a major/minor in jazz studies.
- Recent transcript and two letters of recommendation from music instructor or counselor.
- An essay explaining experience(s) which influenced your decision to pursue a career in jazz music and how these experiences will help this career choice (2-page limit).
- Application package and audition recording (2 selections).
